

Long Term Care Administrative Agreement

Subject to the below eligibility requirement, National Insurance Company of Wisconsin, Inc (NICW) agrees to offer employees of LINCOLN COUNTY who have insurance coverage through either the National Insurance Services trust or the Schools Insurance Fund trust an individual long term care (LTC) insurance policy without medical questions.

Benefits for this coverage will be as stated in the individual long term care insurance policy. An employee will be eligible if:

1. his or her retirement date occurs on or after February 1, 2011; and
2. he or she is actively at work on his or her retirement date meaning he or she worked a full day and performed all the material duties of their own occupation; and
3. he or she is age 55 or older on his or her retirement date, or he or she is retiring by virtue of having satisfied the normal retirement age or service requirement under the employer's retirement plan, whichever is less; and
4. he or she has never been issued an individual long term care insurance policy from NICW. If the employee has previously been issued a long term care insurance policy from NICW, he or she will not be eligible for this offer; and
5. National Insurance Services (NIS) receives notification from the employee within six months after his or her retirement date. If notification is received more than six months after such date, evidence of insurability will be required to obtain coverage.

Within 90 days following the date NIS receives notification of the eligible employee's retirement, or the actual date of his or her retirement, whichever is later, the employee will receive:

1. a Comprehensive Long Term Care Insurance Policy;
2. an Outline of Coverage; and
3. a Long Term Care Insurance Consumer Guide.

The policy will be provided at no cost during the first 90 days following the employee's retirement date. Thereafter, the employee may continue the individual policy in force by paying required premiums when due.

This agreement may be terminated by written notice by any of the parties listed below.
